— WINES —

CALIFORNIA & ITALY

Sunday Funday is about holding tight to those weekend vibes and making them last all week long. It's the commitment to always saying "yes" to an adventure – even (and especially) if it's mildly outrageous.

We live for sun-soaked summer days, pool parties on a Wednesday and bedside brunch bashes when putting pants on seems a bit too much. You don't need to tell us to have a good time, we're already busy having one – Come on in, we'll share.

SAUVIGNON BLANC

SASSY • LAID BACK • BREEZY

APPELLATION California

VARIETAL BREAKDOWN Sauvignon Blanc

ABOUT To keep it fun, we sought out grapes with tropical fruit flavors (yes, you can count this for your daily fruit requirement) and a refreshing profile that is reminiscent of a cool coastal breeze! It's the perfect partner to complete your Sunday Funday to-do list.

TASTING NOTES Get in for the real thing and stick your nose right in that glass to smell aromas of tropical fruit and citrus. The crisp and refreshing entry of pineapple and fresh cut grass leads to a vibrant finish of citrusy goodness. This wine is like going back to that all-inclusive resort with the swim up bar, but without the sun burn.

WINEMAKER Lee Morse

WINEMAKING This wine has got some serious California style. Sunday Funday is a lively stainless-steel fermented Sauvignon Blanc.
