REGION Valle Central, Chile

TASTING NOTES Light yellow in color, golden hue. The nose is full of warm summer fruits such as tropical melon and papaya with a fresh citrus blossom undertone. The palate is full and inviting with honeysuckle notes and perhaps a touch of toffee popcorn. Balanced and fresh with a long fruit-driven finish.

REGION Valle Central, Chile

TASTING NOTES Bright vibrant red. The nose has a red cherry freshness with lifted warmer strawberry notes. The palate is medium weight and concentrated with riper red cherry along with a toasty accompaniment from the judicious use of oak. It also has a lively freshness balanced by the fresh fruit notes.

REGION Valle Central, Chile

TASTING NOTES Vibrant fresh red with a slight purple hue. The nose exhibits a range of summer black and red fruits such as plum and currants. The palate displays an array of warm mature fruit notes as cherry and plum with a hint of rhubarb. The tannins are fine grain and sweet and the acidity is fresh and balanced for a fruit-driven clean expressive finish with nuance of mocha from the use of oak.

REGION Valle Central, Chile

TASTING NOTES Fresh and bright in appearance with moderate depth. The nose exhibits concentrated black currant and juicy black plums combined with a hint of black pepper and sweet spice notes of cinnamon and nutmeg from judicious use of oak. The palate is also bright and fresh with the concentrated rich dark fruit notes being balanced by mature fine grain tannins and red berry acidity to combine in an excellently balanced wine with flavor and persistence.

THE PRACTICE

Having a skill is seldom a coincidence and rarely the result of luck.

Mastering any talent takes time, desire and discipline. Quality wines are not the result of happenstance or fate.

MARTIN'S RAKE

Their westward-raked vineyards of New Zealand were originally tended by a skilled winemaker, greatly revered by the townspeople who referred to him as old man Martin.

Together, the sloped vineyards and winemaker struck the perfect balance to produce a wine celebrated vintage after vintage.

REGION Marlborough, New Zealand
TASTING NOTES Aromas of gooseberry and tropical fruit are framed by a bright, refined acidity and an elegant finish.

DELLATORRI

The Torri family has a long, rich history of providing esteemed wines from Italy's most renowned vineyards. Following true Italian tradition, each of our wines is crafted to enhance gatherings with friends and family, ideally with a table full of festive foods.
