Rosé Wine

MARLBOROUGH

Situated on New Zealand's East Coast, the township of Marlborough is bordered by towering mountains. Their westward-ranked vineyards were originally tended by a skilled winemaker, greatly revered by the townspeople who referred to him as Old Man Martin. Together, the sloped vineyards and winemaker struck the perfect balance to produce a wine that was celebrated vintage after vintage.

TASTING NOTES

Delicate blossom aromas are accompanied by a zesty splash of citrus, leading to a bright, crisp finish. True to Martin's legend, this is a wine to be celebrated.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Great for appetizers like vegetable skewers or feta, spinach and quinoa tartelettes. It also pairs well with white meats and soft cheeses - try it with a creamy sundried tomato chicken penne pasta.
